

Publishing of information as per the provisions of Clause (b) (i) of Section 4 of Right to Information Act., 2005.

The particulars of its organization, functions and duties.

H I M U R J A (H.P. Energy Development Agency) was constituted/set up during the year 1989 and is responsible for;

- promotion and sustainable development of Renewable Energy on one hand and energy security on the other alongwith research and development programme within the State in the most efficient and economical manner. The Agency is carrying out this task effectively through its various identified block/ district level offices in Himachal Pradesh.
- To provide reliable and grid quality power supply.
- To make Himachal Pradesh a power surplus State.
- Preparation and implementation of accelerated development of renewable sources of energy in the State.
- To enhance the contribution of renewable viz. solar, wind, biomas etc. for meeting maximum rural energy needs.
- Having approximate capacity of 2000 MW under Small Hydel sector up to 5 MW and the State Government's aim is to harness the maximum potential in this sector through Private Sector participation and H.P. Govt. have framed a new Power Policy under which projects upto 2 MW capacity will be reserved for bonafide Himachalis and Co-operative Societies and preference upto 5 MW will also be given to the bonafide Himachalis.